BIBLE READING: 1 JOHN 4: 19-20

We love because he first loved us.

Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen.

1 John 4:7-21 Loving one another
by Layreader Harriet Nakanjako.

As we enter the period of the Trinity, it shows God's love or us.

We are born of God so we should love one another. Vs 8, whoever doesn't love, doesn't know God. After all, God is love.

Since we are created in God's image, we too should love others. God's love is already within each of us.

We sometimes wrong our friends intentionally, though sometimes its unintentionally. We shouldn't be hurting one another. The killings, the stealing, the robbing etc is so rampant today.

Let us do good to one another especially in this Trinity John 3: God sent his own son, that we may know him through the son.

The blood of Christ washes our unrighteousness to make us worthy to live the righteous lives.

So, Love God with all your heart, mind, body, with all of you.

Jesus became our sin, at the cross. We accept Christ and give Him all our sin, hence receiving righteousness.

At Baptism we are washed of our generational sin.

Who of us can sacrifice your own child to stay at home and then you take some street children to school; non of us. It's how God sent his son for us to benefit from his love.

If you love God then show your neighbour love. If you respect God, then respect your neighbor. We have God's spirit in us, so its possible through the spirit of God that dwells in us.

We need to confess Christ as our savior to avoid the reward of sin, which is death.

In vs 17-18. Fear goes away when we love God. We should repent our sins fully.

As we show love to our friends, we should show the love of God.
