TRAIN UP A CHILD IN THE WAY HE SHOULD GO.
LAYREADER STEVEN NSEREKO

Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." (PROVERBS 22:6)
It says to teach a child while he is young so that when he grows up, he will not depart from the teachings, even when he is old. As parents, we should teach our children the ways of God so that they can be victorious and overcome the challenges of life. We should ask God to guide us as we teach our children His commandments (EXODUS 20).
We should teach our children to fear God and respect all authority, and to grow up in the ways of God. Many parents take their children to church, but then abandon them, leading to children growing up without knowing God.
As believers, we should dedicate our children to God while they are young so that they can be protected from evil and grow up to be victorious in life. May the Lord bless you with these words.
